

PennEngineering's Community Service Charter

PennEngineering's Global Community Service team exists to foster a strong sense of partnership with charitable organizations that serve our local regions. Each PennEngineering site approaches their community service efforts, in a manner that best suits that particular site – this fosters creativity and commitment in PennEngineering's relationship with our charitable partners. Employees are encouraged to actively participate in these efforts to donate time and financial resources, for the betterment of their local community.